

Main Street

Main Street USA

Main Street is where the community comes together. Starting with the Civic Center and the police station, you will find shops and businesses typical in most communities. Scattered along the street are historical and other buildings. Some of these buildings are replicas of our supporter's businesses. We try to keep the timeline in the 1950s-60s and the cars and people reflect this period.